FRANKIA MOTORHOMES 2027

100% MADE IN GERMANY

 Important information regarding the Technical Data

1. Technically permissible maximum laden mass (kg)

The technically permissible maximum laden mass is the total mass specified by the manufacturer that the vehicle must not exceed when driving.

2. Mass in running order (kg)

The mass in running order indicates the unladen weight of the vehicle with standard equipment according to the manufacturer's specifications. It includes the mass of the body, the cab, the tyre repair kit and the tools, the fresh water tank filled to 100% in driving mode (drive load according to the Technical Data), one aluminium gas cylinder filled to 100% with a weight of 16 kg, the fuel tank filled to 90% including fuel, the AdBlue-Tank filled to 100% and the mass of the driver, which (regardless of the actual weight) is rated at 75 kg. This calculated value is subject to legally permissible production-related deviations of up to +/-5% (see addition in brackets), which may affect the pay-mass of your motorhome and therefore also the mass of the optional equipment. Please note that the specified value is the mass in running order of the basic version of the vehicle shown. Information on the mass in running order for the vehicle version of your motorhome can be found after delivery of the vehicle in section 13 of the Certificate of Conformity (CoC).

3. Standard belt seats

The mass of the passengers is based on the number of belt seats specified by the manufacturer rated at 75 kg per belt. The mass of the driver, which has already been included in the mass in running order, must be deducted. For a vehicle with four belt seats, the mass of the passengers is 225 kg (3*75 kg).

4. Maximum mass of optional equipment

The maximum mass of optional equipment is a value calculated by the manufacturer to limit the mass for optional equipment that can be ordered ex works. This is to ensure that the vehicle complies with the legally prescribed minimum pay-mass. If you exceed the maximum mass of optional equipment during configuration, you can only continue or finalise the configuration if you deselect optional equipment or belt seats or order the vehicle with an increase in the technically permissible maximum laden mass. For detailed information on the weight specifications, visit www.frankia.com.

5. Fresh water tank in driving mode (drive load)

Please note that the filling of the fresh water tank is considerably reduced when driving. If the pay-mass of your motorhome is sufficient, the filling of the fresh water tank can be increased.

HIGHLIGHTS 2027 · 100% MADE IN GERMANY

In 2026, FRANKIA is continuing to forge ahead. With the FRANKIA NOCTRA Cruiser, we took the first step towards a new generation of luxury motorhomes in 2025. Now comes the next milestone: the new FRANKIA NOCTRA Liner. The A-Class version takes things to a whole new level, setting new standards for design, comfort and quality. We went back to the drawing board for this model. We rethought and completely redesigned everything and optimised proven features – right down to the very last detail. Naturally, FRANKIA is: 100% made in Germany.

FURTHER INFORMATION

Our 3.5 t models* have also been further developed across the board. FRANKIA NEO and FRANKIA NOW have been given a comprehensive facelift – inside and out – and, with five individual interior styles, offer even more ways to express your personality. The new FRANKIA NEO Liner 6.6 H has a very special surprise in store: this compact A-Class combines an outstanding sense of space with an exceptionally large rear kitchen to create a unique spatial concept, setting new standards as an alternative to a camper van.

Another highlight is the new FINAL EDITION. Available on a Mercedes-Benz or Fiat Ducato platform, it combines luxurious living comfort with the most popular equipment options. Depending on the model, customers benefit from a price advantage of up to €14,000. The FRANKIA TOGETHER Edition remains another highlight this year. It takes models with a round seating group to a new level – with a fresh design, an impressive sense of space, comfort upgrades, extensive standard equipment and a high degree of self-sufficiency.

"The revolutionary FRANKIA NOCTRA Liner is the first model in our next generation of luxury A-Class motorhomes. It defines the next level of design and comfort – and with it, the future."
